Chartis U.S. Privacy and Data Security Notice

I. Your Privacy

In the course of conducting business, we collect information about you in order to properly service the products we sell to you. Accordingly, Chartis U.S. has established practices, procedures and system protections that are designed to help protect the privacy and security of your information.

About This Notice

The term "Personal Information," as used in this Privacy and Data Security Notice, means information that identifies you, our Customer, personally. Examples of Personal Information include a first and last name, a home or other physical address, an email address, a credit card number, a driver's license number, or information on your physical condition or health status.

This Privacy and Data Security Notice outlines how we collect, handle, and disclose Personal Information about you. It applies only to your Personal Information obtained by the Companies listed at the end of this Notice, in connection with products or services with which you received this Notice which are primarily for personal, family, or household purposes in the United States.

Information Collection

We may collect Personal Information about you from applications, enrollment forms, your other interactions with us, our Affiliates, and when we process claims or other transactions in connection with the underwriting process. We may also collect Personal Information about you from credit reporting agencies and other third parties in connection with the sale of our products to you.

We will collect Personal Information about you only in accordance with applicable laws or regulations or in response to your request for a product or service from us.

Information Sharing

We may share your Personal Information with Affiliates and Non-Affiliates as described below.

With our Affiliates: We may share customer information with our Affiliates. Our Affiliates may include other insurance companies, insurance holding companies, insurance agents and agencies, claims administrators, marketing companies, e-commerce service providers, and companies providing administrative services.

- We may share your Personal Information with our Affiliates that assist us in servicing your insurance policies. Examples are administration (billing and collections), risk management, underwriting, and claims handling. We may also share your Personal Information with our Affiliates for the purpose of detecting and preventing fraud, as directed or authorized by you, or as otherwise permitted or required by law.
- We will not share your Personal Information that is of a financial nature with our Affiliates for marketing purposes without first providing you an opportunity to direct that such information not be shared.
- We will not share your Personal Information that is of a health nature with our Affiliates except as directed or authorized by you.

With Non-Affiliates: We may also share customer information with Non-Affiliated companies.

1. We may share your Personal Information with Non-Affiliates that assist us in servicing your insurance policies. Examples are administration (billing and collections), risk management, underwriting, and claims handling. We may also share your Personal Information with Non-Affiliates for the purpose of detecting and preventing fraud, as directed or authorized by you, or as otherwise permitted or required by law.
2. We may enter into joint marketing agreements with Non-Affiliates to share your non-health Personal Information as permitted by law. These Non-Affiliates may include providers of financial products or services such as insurance companies, financial institutions, and securities firms.

Because we do not share customer information in any other way, there is no need for an opt-out process in our privacy procedures.

For California and Vermont Residents: If it becomes necessary to share your Personal Information with Non-Affiliates other than as specifically allowed by law, we will not do so without first obtaining your permission.

II. Information Protection

We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards designed to protect your Personal Information. Only authorized employees, insurance agents and administrators are permitted to have access to that information.

We expect any Non-Affiliates that serve our Customers on our behalf to adhere to our privacy policy. Those non-affiliates are legally bound to use your Personal Information received from us only for the purposes for which it was provided and to not disclose it or use it in any other way. These Non-Affiliates are also subject to and governed by federal and state privacy laws and regulations. We are not responsible for their misuse of information.

To help prevent unwarranted disclosure of your Personal Information and secure it from theft, we utilize secure computer networks. Access is restricted to those individuals who need to use your Personal Information to provide products or services to you.

III. Maintaining Information

We also maintain procedures to ensure that the information we collect is accurate, up-to-date, and as complete as possible. If you believe the information we have about you in our records or files is incomplete or inaccurate, you may request that we make additions or corrections, or if it is feasible, that we delete this information from our files. You may make this request in writing to (include your name, address and policy number):

Chief Privacy Officer
Chartis U.S.
175 Water Street, 17th Floor
New York, NY 10038

E-Mail: CIPrivacy@chartisinsurance.com

Special Notice: You can obtain access to any non-public Personal Information we have about you if you properly identify yourself and submit a written request to the address above describing the information you want to review. We will also tell you the identity, if recorded, of persons to whom we have disclosed your non-public Personal Information within the preceding two years.

You may request that we correct, amend or delete any information about you. If we do so, we will notify organizations that provided us with that information and, at your request, persons who received that information from us within the preceding two years. If we refuse to correct, amend or delete the information, you may give us a written statement of the reasons you disagree, which we will place in your file and give to the same parties who would have been notified of the requested change.

Our Customers Can Depend on Us

We are committed to maintaining our trusted relationship with our Customers. We consider it our privilege to serve our Customers' insurance and financial needs and we value the trust they have placed in us. Our Customers' privacy is a top priority with us and thus we will continue to monitor our privacy practices in order to protect and respect that privacy and will comply with state privacy laws that require more restrictive practices than those set out in this notice.

HIPAA Privacy Notice

Administrative Offices
175 Water St. 17th Floor
New York, NY 10038

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION.

PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

Our Duties

By law, the Domestic Accident & Health Division of Chartis U.S. listed below is required to maintain the privacy of protected health information and to provide you with notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to protected health information. "Protected health information" includes any identifiable information that we obtain from you or others that relates to your physical or mental health, the health care you have received, or payment for your health care.

We are required to abide by the terms of this notice currently in effect. We reserve the right to change the terms of this notice and to make the new notice provisions effective for all protected health information that we maintain. In the event we revise the notice, we will provide you with a revised notice by mail.

Your Individual Rights

With respect to protected health information, you have the following rights:

1. The right to request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures of protected health information including the uses and disclosures listed in this notice and permitted disclosures. However, we are not required to agree to a requested restriction;
2. The right to reasonably request to receive confidential communications of protected health information by alternative means or at alternative locations;
3. The right to inspect and copy your protected health information in our records, except for:
 - psychotherapy notes;
 - information compiled in reasonable anticipation of, or for use in, a civil, criminal, or administrative action or proceeding;
 - protected health information that is subject to a law prohibiting access to that information; or
 - if the protected health information was obtained from someone other than us under a promise of confidentiality and the access requested would be reasonably likely to reveal the source of the information.

We may also deny your request to inspect and copy your protected health information if:

- a licensed health care professional has determined that the access requested is reasonably likely to endanger your life or physical safety or the life or physical safety of another person;
- the protected health information makes reference to another person and a health care professional has determined that the access requested is reasonably likely to cause substantial harm to such other person; or
- a licensed health care professional has determined that the access requested by your personal representative is reasonably likely to cause substantial harm to you or another person.

If we deny access on one of the above three grounds, you have the right to have the denial reviewed in accordance with applicable law.

4. The right to amend your protected health information contained in our records. However, if the information was not created by us, is not part of our medical or billing records, is not available for inspection, or the information is accurate and complete, we are not required to amend the information;

AIG Casualty Company; American Home Assurance Company; American International South Insurance Company; Audubon Insurance Company; Commerce and Industry Insurance Company; Granite State Insurance Company; Illinois National Insurance Co.; National Union Fire Insurance Company of Pittsburgh, Pa.; New Hampshire Insurance Company; The Insurance Company of the State of Pennsylvania; AIG Excess Liability Insurance Company Ltd.; American International Specialty Lines Insurance Company; Landmark Insurance Company; Lexington Insurance Company; National Union Fire Insurance Company of Vermont, other member companies of Chartis U.S., and American International Life Assurance Company of New York and AIG Life Insurance Company.

5. The right to receive an accounting of disclosures of protected health information made by us in the six years prior to the date on which the accounting is requested, except for disclosures:
- to carry out payment and health care operations as provided below;
 - for notification purposes, as provided by law;
 - for national security or intelligence purposes, as provided by law;
 - to correctional institutions or law enforcement officials, as provided by law; or
 - that occurred prior to April 14, 2003; and
6. The right to obtain a paper copy of this notice upon request if you are viewing this notice electronically.

Uses and Disclosures of Protected Health Information

Under Federal law, we are permitted to use and disclose protected health information for the purposes of treatment, payment, and health care operations.

- Treatment. We do not provide treatment.
- Payment. Payment refers to activities involving collection of premium and payment of claims. Examples of uses and disclosures under this section include (1) sharing protected health information with other insurers to determine coordination of benefits, the administration of claims, determining coverage, and providing benefits; and (2) sharing protected health information with third party administrators for the processing of claims.
- Operations. Operations refers to the business functions necessary for us to operate, such as quality assurance activities, audits, and complaint responses. Examples of uses and disclosures under this section include (1) using protected health information for the purpose of underwriting and calculating premium rates, (2) using protected health information to perform legal, actuarial, and auditing services, (3) disclosing protected health information when responding to complaints, and (4) use of protected health information for general data analysis and long term management and planning.

We may also use or disclose your protected health information for other purposes permitted or required by law, including the following:

- to you, as the covered individual;
- to a personal representative designated by you to receive protected health information or a personal representative designated by law such as the parent or legal guardian of child, or the surviving family members or representative of the estate of a deceased individual;
- to the Secretary of Health and Human Services, or any employee thereof, as part of an investigation to determine our compliance with the HIPAA Privacy Rules;
- to a business associate as part of a contracted agreement to perform services for the group health plan;
- to a health oversight agency, such as the Insurance Commissioner's Office, to respond to inquiries or investigations of the plan, requests to audit the plan, or to obtain necessary licenses;
- in response to a court order, subpoena, discovery request or other lawful judicial or administrative proceeding;
- as required by law enforcement purposes;
- as required to comply with Workers' Compensation or other similar programs established by law.

The examples of permitted uses and disclosures listed above are not provided as an all inclusive list of the ways in which protected health information may be used. They are provided to describe in general the types of uses and disclosures that may be made.

Other uses and disclosures of your protected health information may be made only with your written authorization unless otherwise permitted or required by law. You may revoke such authorization at any time by providing written notice to us that you wish to revoke an authorization. We will honor a request to revoke as of the day it is received and to the extent that we have not already used or disclosed your protected health information in good faith with the authorization.

Complaints Regarding Your Privacy Rights

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may complain to the Secretary of Health and Human Services or you may file a complaint with us. Address your complaint to HIPAA Privacy Officer, 175 Water Street 17th Floor, New York, NY 10038. You will not be retaliated against by us for filing a complaint.

Effective Date

This notice becomes effective on April 14, 2003.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO OUR CUSTOMERS REGARDING THE OFFICE OF FOREIGN ASSETS CONTROL

Your rights as a policyholder and payments to you, any insured, additional insured, loss payee, mortgagee, or claimant, for loss under this policy may be affected by the administration and enforcement of U.S. economic embargoes and trade sanctions by the OFFICE OF FOREIGN ASSETS CONTROL ("OFAC").

WHAT IS OFAC?

OFAC is an office of the Department of the Treasury and acts under presidential wartime and national emergency powers, as well as authority granted by specific legislation, to impose controls on transactions and freeze foreign assets under U.S. jurisdiction. OFAC administers and enforces economic embargoes and trade sanctions primarily against:

- Targeted foreign countries and their agents
- Terrorism sponsoring agencies and organizations
- International narcotics traffickers

PROHIBITED ACTIVITY

- OFAC enforces certain embargoes and sanctions against certain designated countries. No U.S. business or person may enter into certain transactions in or connected to such designated "sanctioned" countries.
- OFAC maintains a directory known as the "Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons" ("SDNBP") list. No U.S. business or person may transact business with any person or entity named on the SDNBP list.

Additional and more in-depth information on OFAC is available at the following website:
<http://www.ustreas.gov/offices/eotffc/ofac>.

OBLIGATIONS PLACED ON US BY OFAC

If we determine that you or any insured, additional insured, loss payee, mortgagee, or claimant are on the SDNBP list or are connected to a sanctioned country as described in the regulations enforced by OFAC, we must block or "freeze" property and payment of any funds transfers or transactions and report all blocks to OFAC within ten (10) days.

POTENTIAL ACTIONS BY US

1. We may immediately cancel your coverage effective on the day that we determine that we have transacted business with an individual or entity associated with your policy on the SDNBP list or connected to a sanctioned country as described in the regulations enforced by OFAC.
2. If we cancel your coverage, you will not receive a return premium unless approved by OFAC. All funds will be placed in an interest bearing blocked account established on the books of a U.S. financial institution.
3. We will not pay a claim, accept premium or exchange monies or assets of any kind to or with individuals, entities or companies (including a bank) on the SDNBP list or connected to a sanctioned country as described in the regulations enforced by OFAC. And, we will not defend or provide any other benefits under your policy to individuals, entities or companies on the SDNBP list or connected to a sanctioned country as described in the regulations enforced by OFAC.

YOUR RIGHTS AS A POLICYHOLDER

If funds are blocked or frozen by us in conjunction with the OFFICE OF FOREIGN ASSETS CONTROL, you may complete an "APPLICATION FOR THE RELEASE OF BLOCKED FUNDS" and apply for a specific license to request their release. Forms are available for download at the OFAC website. See <http://www.ustreas.gov/offices/eotffc/ofac/legal/forms/license.pdf>
